We see the complexity of the topic - INFERIORITY, VICTIMHOOD, AMBITION, ARROGANCE, MEGALOMANIA – with which you work, very clearly and distinctly.

We gave you all the time to really feel and experience each theme and we tell you – you will not be able to develop any further without the conscience of how these five basic energies affect you.

Your spiritual ascent will not be possible without realizing the complexity of this topic. Ambition means total absence of love! Ambition doesn't leave any space for movement, what you might not see at first, as you have initially identified it as a dynamic energy. When your ego expands, when your ego becomes too proud, when your ego exposes itself, especially regarding spiritual themes, you will realize that everything you ever set in motion will revert to a form of total stagnation. It will lead to frustration which again will be compensated by „ego-break-outs“.

On this three dimensional level you have learned that one can achieve a lot by the power of will. The question is – what is the driving force of this power? Plain ego thoughts, a rigid ego orientation, that has only one aim, the aim of hiding inferiority. Or is power of love the driving force controlling your will?

This, beloved children, is a decision you have to make in the near future. The whole construct you have eagerly worked on in the past and that you have adapted, will, in a very short time, collapse like a house of cards, once the energies become stronger, achieve a higher frequency and maintain a subtle vibration.

You will lose everything and a profound frustration and despair will remain, as your artificial construct, your show, will come to an end. You will lose hold of your ego construct and in your imagination of what spirituality stands for. Spirituality is nothing you can find in books or libraries and nothing phrases of blinded gurus can tell you about. Spirituality, genuine spirituality, you can only find in your hearts.

So we tell you – burn all books, throw away what you have read. Now comes the time of challenge to live what you have supposedly understood. Is the only motivation, the driving force in your life, love and empathy and the readiness to serve with all your heart and full spirit? Or do ego projects motivate your supposed spirituality and your supposed ascent?

We today tell you in absolute clearness and distinction – you have accumulated a lot of knowledge – you already know everything. Are you able to live this knowledge, to transform it in a constructive way? Are you ready to see each other as you really are? Or is your ambition and ego still the driving force of your gathering here?

We are not here to frighten you, but the dramatic significance of the topic asks for your highest attention. The five columns which you will pass through in this workshop, are the fundamentals of your human existence! Only in perceiving these five themes, that are so subtly attached to each other, that you cannot separate them – only your perception and your acceptance of the themes being in yourself, gives this planet the chance to transform.

If humanity keeps on denying the responsibility for these five columns - INFERIORITY, VICTIMHOOD, AMBITION, ARROGANCE, MEGALOMANIA – the light will not be able to enlighten this planet as foreseen. Time has come for a decision! We come into your inner circle today to encourage you. To encourage you to pass through these five gates of transformation.

Another ten topics for he work on the transformation will be given to you in the near future. They're already prepared – the five gates though are the initial keys on your way that you will have to go in the time to come.
